Cole Engineering is again pleased to be named among the Top 50 Best Employers in the GTA (Greater Toronto Area) for 2011. The Toronto Star published the results in the November 20th issue, where Cole Engineering placed 19th on the list. "A total of 251 companies participated in the 2011 Best Employers studies, which is a 20 per cent increase over the previous year."

Neil Crawford, of Aon Hewitt states; "They [employees] express a desire to stay and contribute to the organization's success. And they are inspired and motivated by what's going on in the organization - by the leadership, culture, management - to do their best work every day."
